Building Our Future

Rowan College of New Jersey 201 Mallio Foll Rd. Glassboro, NJ 08028 "IMAGE" 1995

A Future of Changes. . .

Ever since Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rowan gave GSC a most generous gift, the now Rowan College has seen much construction and many changes taking place on campus. Changes that will affect students lives in the future.

Roaming the Campus. What you may or may not have seen through the years.

A Future in Academics.

While walking through the halls, we caught a glimpse of professors lecturing and students listening (NOT!). Of course we have the occasional class clown or daydreamer, but there is always something to experience at Rowan.

A Future of Friendships. .

A Future of Celebrations. . .

Bonfire 1994

Homecoming — The American Dream

Here it is, the big weekend. Students, alumni and parents join together for a weekend of fun, frenzy and competition. On October 8, we watched the parade as various campus or ganizations fought their way to the top.

Take Back the Night...

Take back the night is a yearly event focusing on sexual abuse and violence in our society.

Another semester engraved in mind.

Memories of literary nights, parties from past to present, formal soirees, and friendly midnight chats. Molded and shaped the students we've become.

walking crammed deadlines papers, papers, more papers October midterms

The last semester approaches not soon enough "some say." Senior portraits arrive with glowing faces wearing traditional cap and gowns. Class rings are chosen to fit everyone's unique style.

plush lawn of Bunce Hall ceremonial daydreams Commencement Day

Looking back on Freshman year the frantic student unsure if you can plough through first semester let alone the year.

> turbulent days helter-skelter weekends restless nights

Now, looking ahead and rising above on tranquil waters. Smooth sailing waiting patiently to dock on dry land.

Commencement day has arrived, walking along on Bunce lawn to recieve your degree. Euphoria takes over, smile towards yourself. Quietly, say "Yesterday I was an undergrad, Today I'm free."

Rowan Camden Committee

This committee was formed in the interest of the students at the Camden Campus. Through their efforts, the impossible was acheived. Although many hard times were presented, we all contirbuted what we could. IT has been a wonderful year even though there was conflicting personalities. Thank you, I enjoyed working with all of you.

Alliance of United Cultures is resposible for providing a social atmosphere among the students. Their events and contributions to the school are outstanding. A group that put all their heart into their work. We hope their leagacy continues.

English as a Second Language

Some could not speak English when they came to Camden Campus. Many were locked into dead-end situations, struggling to support themselves and their families, afraid to dream of a better life. Many never believed they could change their lives as they are doing now. But they came to us, and here they are, helping each other, supporting each other, caring for each other.

reating Higher Aspirations and Motivation Project

C.H.A.M.P. assembled to meet the needs of the Rowan Camden student. Sometimes it is hard to focus on goals when they are not immediate or in the near future. Long term goals can sometimes become clouded and seem so distant. C.H.A.M.P. helps us focus on our goals.

Rowan Campus

There is something happening here at Rowan College of New Jersey, Camden Campus. You notice it from the time you walk into the building. You can see it in the faces of our students and staff and faculty. Lives are being changed here. The future is being built-your future, if you want it.

Take a good look around. There are students here from just down the street, and from around the world-Mexico, Russia, Vietnam, China, Columbia, Thailand, Egypt, Israel, the United States-all working side by side, some came right out of high school in Camden or the suburbs.

Speaker of the House

Newt Grengrich wanted to be speaker of the House years before he managed to win a house seat, and he long ago laid plans for the Republican take over most of hiscolleagues considered an impossible dream.

This is the Georgia congressman's season of triumph. He is celebrating it in typical contradictory fashion — high-minded one moment, flamboyant the next. He said himself he needs to tone down his style, but he hasn't yet taken his own advice.

Gingrich, 51, was an assistant history professor at West Georgia College in rural Carrollton, GA, when he started running for Congress. He made it on his third try, in 1978, presenting himself as a moderate with strong family values.

Another Hand Shake of Peace

Two men who had regarded each other with suspicion for six decades shook hands on the South Lawn of the White House, and once again peace in the Middle East seemed more than a drea.

A year after he shook the hand of Palestine Liberation Organization chairman Yasser Arafat, Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin did the same with the King Hussein of Jordan.

The two nations had been enemies since the creation of Isreal in 1948 following a brief, bitter was between Jews and Arabs.

Health Care Reform

If the United States truly had a health care crisis 1994, you couldn't have proved it by Congress. I spite the exhortations of President Clinton and t First Lady, the year ended without significant healinsurance reform.

In 1993 the President appointed his wife, Hilla Rodham Clinton, to head a heath care task for After extensive hearings and much research, t group produced a proposal that became famous or infamous — for its complexity.

Earthquake in Japan

Japan's nightmare of a disastrous urban earthquake came true on January 17, 1995 when a powerful quake tore through several western cities, toppling hundreds of building, touching off raging fires and killing more than 5,000 people.

The country had been rattled by a series of strong quakes since late December, when the quake with a magnitude of 7.5 jolted northern Japan.

The city of Kobe, the site of the worst destruction, is a gateway for more than 12 percent of Japan's export.

Georgia Floods

It was a rainy month in Georgie, where two weeks record flooding in July killed 31 people, destroyed ndreds of bridges and roads, and even uprooted skets from cemeteries.

Tropical storm Albert dumped nearly two feet of in, flooding the Fling and Ocmulgee rivers in the ntral and southwestern sections of the state. About ,000 people fled their homes, and more than ,000 acres of crops were inundated after flooding gan on July 5.

Forest Fires

Tens of thousands of firefighters fought s summer-long battle against scores of fires that burned more than three million acres of woodlands across the parched Western states.

so many young people were fighting fires in Idaho by late August that state colleges allowed preregistered students to return to classes as much as three weeks late. Residents of mountain homes near Boise were routed by a single fire that consumed 27, 000 acres.

Flames scorched a range of well-known locations, including the Jackson Hole ski valley and western Wyoming's Grand Teton National Park.

Plane Crash

Frank Corder suffered from depression, had a history of drug and alcohol abuse, and probably suicidal. But nothing may ever explain for sure why the Maryland trucker stole a small plane near Baltimore and crashed it into the White House lawn shortly before 2AM on September 15, 1994.

Neither Presidetn Clinton nor his wife and daughter were home when Corder, flying at treetop level, breeched restricted air space around the White House and smashed into a magnolia tree on the South Lawn. The single engine place came to rest against the mansion wall and burst into flames.

California Floods

A string of Pacific storms led to the deaths of at least 11 people and caused more than $300 million in flood damage across the state of California in January 1995.

The storms battered much of the state, from the wine country north of San Fransisco to the beaches of Malibu in the south, leaving downed power lines, leaking gas lines and hundreds of dead livestock.

In Humbolt County, authorities called on the National Guard to hlep them collect the rotting carcasses of sheep and dairy cattle that floated down the Eel River.

Cuban Refugees

They headed north on almost anything that wou float, including rafts made of the flimsiest materials: c drums, inner tubes, wooden planks.

They were Cuba's boat people — tens of thousands of people desperate to come to the United States to escapthe poverty and hunger of their increasingly isolate Communist nation.

Many did no make it because of storms, sinkings the U.S. Coast Guard, which intercepted more than 1,000 of the craft in one day early in September.

Spacewalk

A jet propelled astronaut unhooked his lifelines to the Space Shuttle Discovery and flew free, 150 miles above earth. It was the first untethered spacewalk in 10 years.

Mark Lee (astronaut in photo) was followed by fellow astronaut Carl Meade. They had but one jet pack between them — it cost $7 million, after all — and had to take turns.

"This thing works like a champ, "Lee said as he hovered over Discovery's cargo bay, firing the pack's 24 tiny nitrogen gas jets for propulsion and steering with a joystick.

The jet pack was designed to be a life preserver for space station crews of the future. It weighs just 83 pounds on Earth, but — like everything else — nothing in space.

Miss America 1995

A deaf woman from Alabama became the first contestant with a sability to win the Miss America Pageant.

The 68th Miss America was 21-year-old Heather Whitestone. After ceiving the crown, she signed "I love you" amidst thunderous plause from the audience at the Atlantic City Convention Center. Her slogan in the competition was "Youth Motivation: Anything is ssible." She was proof enough that having lost h=most of her aring after a reaction when she was 18 months old.

Whitestone became Miss AMerica 1995 in part through her talent atine, a ballet performance to music that she could not hear, thead she counted the beats in her head and synchronized her nce moves to reflect changes in pitch.

Woodstock '94

It rained. Thousands crashed the gates. People with tickets couldn't get in or had to wait hours. Portable toilets overflowed. Food occasionally ran short. Drugs were everywhere.

Woodstock '94 looked a lot like the original 1969 rock festival — right down to the fans, who wouldn't have missed it for the world.

Promoters set up distant parking lots and shuttle buses for the 200,00 people who paid $135 each for tickets — advance sale only. But about 350,00 people showed up. Many ticket holders couldn't find a parking space, and some walked up to 12 miles to get to the concert. A few gave up and went home.

Agassi Wins U.S. Open

Andre Agassi was one of the best known entrants in the 1994 U.S. Open, but a year of largely indifferent tennis had left him unseeded and unheralded.

So everyone was amazed when he won the tournament — including Agassi. "I'm still in a state of shock," he told the crowd at the U. S. Tennis Center in New York after receiving a check for $550,000 and the champion's silver trophy. "It's quite amazing what I pulled off."

Baseball Strike

The 1994 baseball season ended not with a home run or a strikeout, but with a conference call and a fax. On the 34th day of the of the major league players strike, the team owners cancelled the rest of the season, including the playoffs and the World Series.

"This is a sad day," said acting commissioner Bud Selig in a fax distributed to the news media.

He got no argument. Not from Tony Gwynn of the San Diego Padres, who lost his chance to bat .400. Not from Matt Williams of the Sanfransisco Giants, who lost his shot at Roger Maris' home run record. Not from superstars Barry Bonds and Ken Griffey Jr., who lost more salary in a day than most Americans earn in a year.

Super Bowl XXIX

The Sanfransisco 49ers scored early and often on January 29 to defeat the San Diego Chargers 49-26 in a Super Bowl that quickly turned into the rout the expert had predicted quickly turned into the rout the expert had predicted.

For 49ers quarterback Steve Young, the victory not only put his name on the record book but allowed him to escape the ghost of his predecessor, Super Bowl hero Joe Montana.

Young, unanimously named the game's most valuable player, passed for 325 yards without an interception and ran for 49. His six touchdown passes broke the Super Bowl records of five that Montana set five years ago.

O.J. and Nicole

O.J. Simpson always lived life on camera, first as a football star, then as a sportscaster, commercial pitchman and actor. But nothing could have prepared him, or his fans, for the role he would play in 1994.

But it was his arrest that proved unforgettable. Instead of turning himself in as promised, Simpson had a friend drive him on a rambling jaunt along southern California's freeways.

As a national television audience watched — virtually all network programming was pre-empted — Simpson's white Bronco moved hypnotically along the fable freeways. Police cars followed in formation, and crowds formed along overpasses.

Jackson & Presley

t was a match made in tabloid heaven: The child of one of the two st stars in rock history married the other biggest star in rock history. a Marie Presley, Elvis's only child, got hitched to the reclusive lel Jackson. After weeks of dodging photographers outside Jack-Trump Tower apartment in New York City, the couple made a very coming out: They opened the MTV Music Video Awards ceremony, least live from the Radio City Music Hall.

er an announcer intoned, "Please welcome Mr. and Mrs. Michael er an announcer intoned, "Please welcome Mr. and Mrs. Michael on," the newlyweds strolled out onto stage. The couple held hands g their brief appearance and exchanged a long kiss as the audience ed wildly n very happy to be here," Jackson said. "And just think, nobody ht this would last."

World Cup

Brazil's offense got all the attention beforehand, but its defense wound up stopping Italy—and winning the World Cup, soccer's ultimate prize.

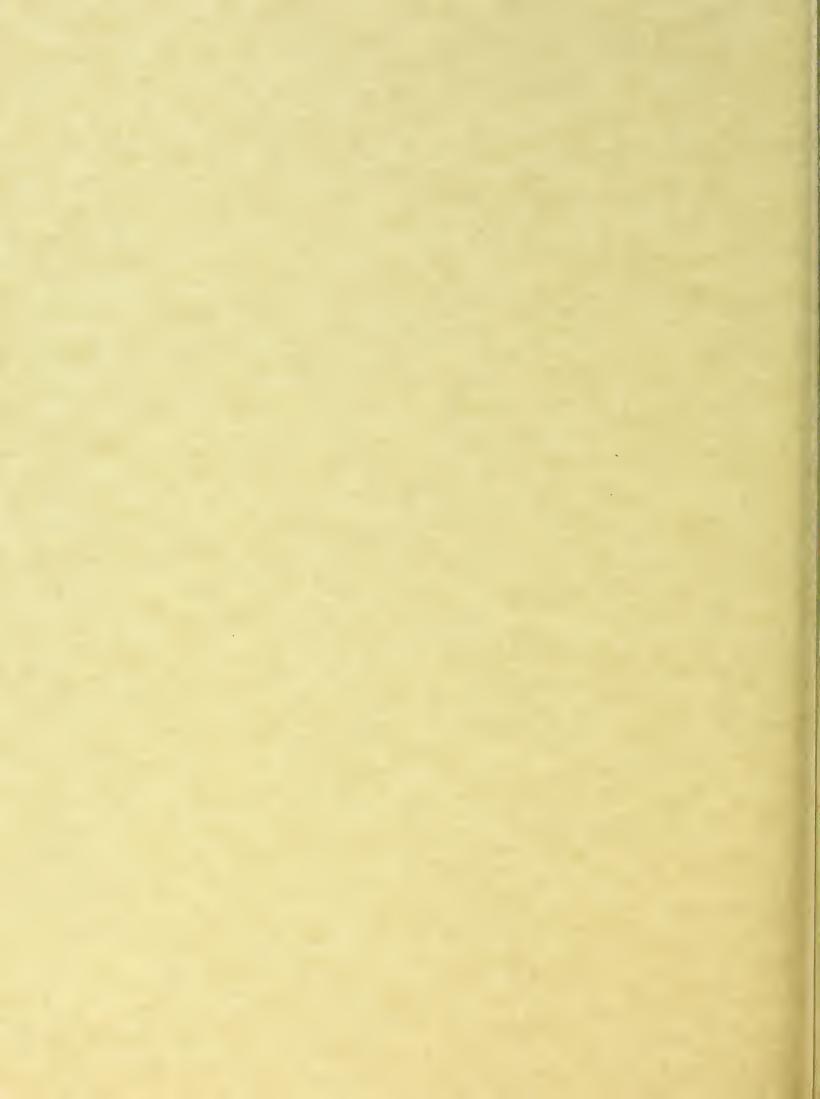

Diving to his left, Brazilian goalkeeper Claudio Taffarel knocked out Daniele Massaro's shot in the penalty kick tiebreaker to set the stage for Brazil's victory.

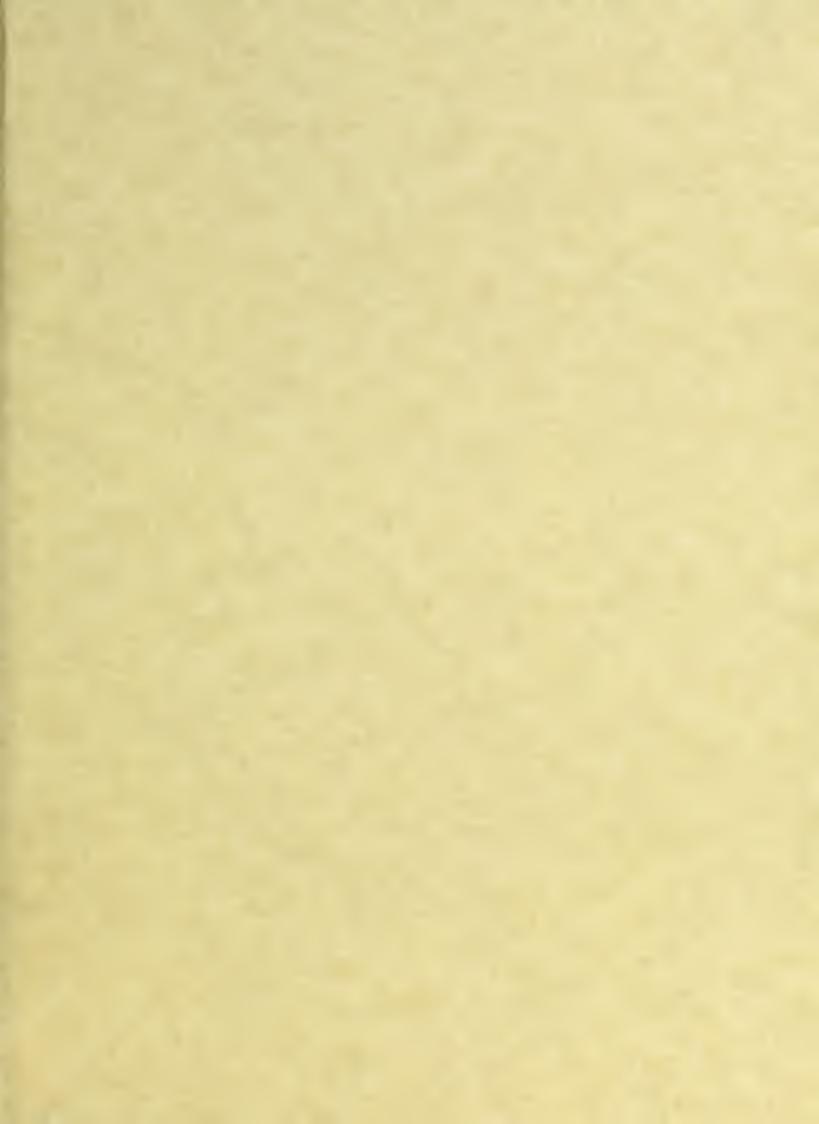

"Defense won this game," Aldiar, one of the new heroes, said after the match. "Maybe this will earn Brazilian defenders some recognition." It already had.
